In observance of International Education Week, November 11-16, 2007

"American University Experience"

November 15, 2007

In observance of the International Education Week (November 11-16) the American Corner Skopje organized a presentation, "American University Experience." Assistant Public Affairs Officer Amy Storrow moderated the event, which included talks by American Fulbright students Erin Traeger and Cristina Rodriguez, as well as Fulbright Scholars Michele O'Neill and Bratislav Stankovic, PhD.

The Fulbright students spoke about their student days and experiences from their university life in the USA at Arizona and Iowa State Universities, respectively.

Fulbright Scholars, Michele O'Neill Associate Professor of Finance at the University of Idaho and attorney Bratislav Stankovic, PhD spoke about the differences between the Macedonian and the American Educational systems.
