The Fulbright Program
With Gazmend Ilazi, Educational Affairs Assistant and Marko Trosanovski, Fulbright Alumni
November 16th, 2009

The total number of Fulbrighters from Macedonia since 1964 is 161. Hoping to increase the number even more Gazmend Ilazi came to the American Corner Skopje to help us celebrate International Education Week and promote the Fulbright program. Mr. Ilazi explained what the Fulbright is, who can be a Fulbrighter, what are the Fulbright program opportunities for the citizens of Macedonia, the eligibility requirements and how to apply. The Fulbright alumni, Marko Trosanovski gave very useful advice to the 21 people present in the audience about the application, letters of recommendation, the research proposal and tips on how to find and later on get in touch with possible mentors. The final interviews and selection criteria were also explained to give the audience a general idea on what they should expect if they are to become one of the finalists.
