U.S. Foreign Policy Process

April 22, 2008

American Corner Tetovo was honored by the presence of the Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Embassy in Macedonia, Mr. Thomas J. Navratil. He held a lecture on the topic "U.S.

Foreign Policy Process", on April 22, 2008.

Around 60 participants attended the lecture including, youth political forums, municipality officers, NGO representatives as well as students and professors from both universities in Tetovo.

Mr. Navratil spoke about the history of U.S. foreign policy; he focused on U.S. political institutions and the spread of power. Afterwards, the audience actively participated in the subsequent discussion. They were interested in the latest political issues that concern the World as well as people in Macedonia.

This event was covered by the local Media: TV Art, TV Koha, TV Kiss and TV Menada, as well as newspapers.
