WARDEN MESSAGE

Attached below please find the text of a warden message sent out from the U.S. Office in Pristina, Kosovo on November 23, 2007.

U.S. Office Pristina is issuing this Warden Message to remind American citizens that there may still be unexploded ordinance or landmines in Kosovo. Recently, four children were injured when they triggered an unexploded landmine while herding sheep near Ferizaj. Police suspect the landmine was left behind during the 1998-1999 conflict. American citizens are advised to use caution when traveling off normal routes.
